

A Note To Logan Lodges

I just wanted to take a moment and let you all know that according to Grand Lodge of Kentucky rules, you may publish the names of current officers and any past masters on this site. If you would like to have that information, or any of the information below, posted here, please get it together in some electronic format and either submit it through the site, or email it to me.

Acceptable and non-acceptable information to publish on a website.

The usual guidance and established information of Freemasonry should apply to the interaction of the internet and your involvement.

Some acceptable information would include:

- 1) List of officers
- 2) History of Lodge
- 3) Contact addresses
- 4) Upcoming events
- 5) Master's Message
- 6) Links to other Masonic bodies
- 7) Past Masters
- 8) Newsletter
